Summary of the research

In the name of Allah , the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful .

Praise be to Allah , Lord of the Worlds, and the best of prayers and peace be upon the envoy, guidance to the worlds, and upon his good, pure, and Ma'soom family .

It becomes clear to everyone who has read the sacred texts that tell about the personality of the Ma'sooms and organize the nature of the relationship to them, that there is a great interest that Almighty Allah has attached to his custodians, peace be upon them, represented in imposing restrictions and prohibiting practices when addressing them, from which he recommended a number of rules, etiquette and methods for the believers to comply with, and if there are ways to address them, they should follow the best of them. The research enumerated a number of blessed verses aiming at these goals, followed by honorable narrations (Riwayat) that support them, to be organized within the three research topics. The first :is in the definition of the address and the methods of its performance, and the second: in addressing the Ma'soom in the light of the Holy Qur'an and the Sunnah and the third is in what the nature of the Ma'soom imposes in the privacy of his address , and the presence of the Ma'soomes in their honorable shrines, the unity of time and place, and the difference in the tongue in addressing, followed by the diagnosis of some of the negative phenomena in that, and models that are an example of what the speech should be, as well as an introduction and conclusion in which the research concluded from the results we ask Almighty Allah to make us among those who listen to the speech and follow the best of it .

Praise be to Allah first and last .

Peace .
